

Strictly necessary information that the applicant for a supply offer must make available to the supplier, in order to prepare a personalized supply offer

In accordance with Article 31 paragraph 2 letter h) of the Regulation on the supply of electricity to final customers, in order to prepare a personalized supply offer, the following information is required:

1. Company Name.
2. Address of the registered office.
3. Copy of the certificate of registration with the Trade Register.
4. The property deed or other document attesting the right of use over the space that is the object of the place of consumption.
5. The bank account number, respectively the bank with which it is opened.
6. Number, location and code of consumption points, voltage level.
7. The consumption requirement for the Delivery Period, broken down by days, consumption and historical forecast at 15 minutes for the last 36 months.
8. Supporting documents for the classification of the customer in the relevant category, reflecting the approved power, such as the technical connection approval and/or the connection certificate;
9. Proof of payment according to the due date of the last 12 invoices issued by the current supplier.